Welcome & Announcements (back of bulletin)

*Call to worship

One: We come carrying many stories—stories of hope and worry, gratitude and fear.

All: We come seeking God,
who meets us in the middle of our lives.

We come from a world that tells us there is never enough.

We come to hear a different word—a holy word.

Come, not to be pressured, but to be formed.

Come, not to prove ourselves, but to trust.

Let us worship the God who gives us daily bread and teaches us what is enough.

Opening prayer

All: Gracious God, we gather today with open hearts and honest questions. Slow us down. Quiet the voices of fear and urgency that surround us. As we worship, help us notice where our trust has settled and gently draw it back to you. Teach us what it means to live with enough—enough grace, enough courage, enough love for this day. We offer this time to you, trusting that you will meet us here. Amen.

Our Sunday Worship at 9:30 a.m.
during Ski Season (Jan–Apr 2026)

Scripture reading Proverbs 30:7–9 (CEB)

7 Two things I ask of you; don't keep them from me before I die:

8 Fraud and lies—keep far from me! Don't give me either poverty or wealth; give me just the food I need.

9 Or I'll be full and deny you, and say, "Who is the Lord?"

Or I'll be poor and steal, and dishonor my God's name.

One: This is the Word of God. All: Thanks be to God.

All: Faithful God, we offer these gifts not out of fear, but out of trust. Receive what we bring—our resources, our hopes, our care for one another—and use them to shape a community rooted in wisdom, generosity, and love. Teach us to live with enough, and to share from the abundance of your grace. Amen.
