Section C

Questions about you and your interest in this Fellowship. Please attach a separate sheet if your answers do not fit in the space provided.

- 1. How do you reclaim, revitalize, celebrate or otherwise advance Inuit culture and self-determination?

- 2. How would this Fellowship help you continue the work you do for Inuit culture and self-determination?

3. Which category of the Fellowship do you feel your work connects to the most?

These categories are flexible and holistic, and are only guidelines to help people see where their work might land. Fellows will decide for themselves which category their work should be in.

- ☐ Sila - The weather, outside, the universe, wisdom
Geared towards those working with the land, the sea, the air, and for the health of, and relationships between, all living beings. Sila means 'the weather, outside, the universe, wisdom'.
- ☐ Inuusivut - Our lives
For those championing Inuit rights, family and child well-being, education, healthcare, political self-governance, self-determination and quality of life.
- ☐ Iliqqusivut - Our culture
Encompasses reclamation and celebration of our lives, languages, and heritage, directly or through other ways of uplifting our connections and ways of being.

4. Is there any other information about yourself or considerations you would like to share as part of your application?
