

WHISTLE BLOWER

- These procedures apply to employee who is on good faith and has the intention of making relevant information be disclosed to the proper authority in aid of an investigation of an audit finding or management report.
- To provide standard procedure in the reporting/submission of relevant information by an employee and on the examination of its veracity and authenticity.