PARADOX

— HOTEL VANCOUVER —

welcome to Vancouver

Paradox Hotel Vancouver strives to be the best and most unique boutique hotel in Vancouver. You immediately sense this when you walk into our lobby. Carefully curated interiors and exteriors reflect our edgy style. The dynamic, social energy engages your emotions and inspires you to seek out new experiences. Approachable staff members see to your every request with a combo of cultured sophistication and witty Canadian character. We're serious about hospitality but never take ourselves too seriously.

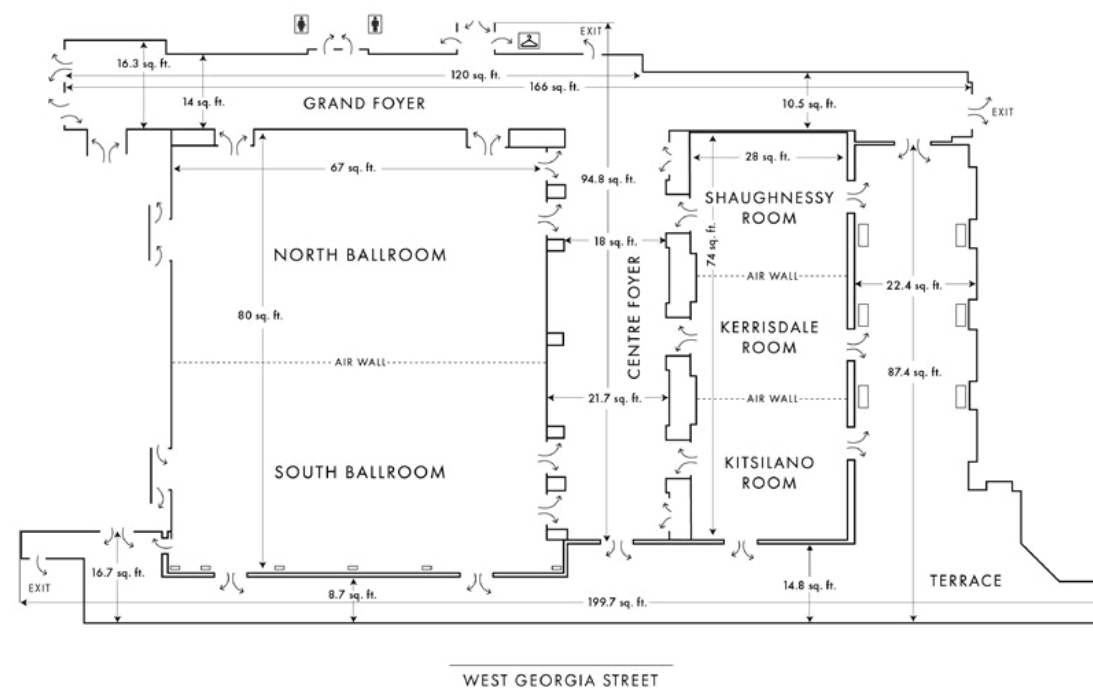

Some hotels confuse “boutique” with “bare bones.” Not us. Perks abound, including a Chinese restaurant where haute cuisine and high design go hand-in-hand. Two chic lounges. A state-of-the-art gym and spa, an indoor pool and outdoor Jacuzzi. Come to think of it, we may have made it a little too hard to leave the hotel.

The Grand Ballroom

Prepare to be enthralled by its awe-inspiring 17-foot high ceilings, an opulent and lavish design that exudes luxury. With cutting-edge technology at your fingertips, including a built-in projector and two massive drop-down screens, this is where audio-visual excellence meets high-notch expectations. No obstructions, no limitations: the column-less expanse ensures an unobstructed panorama, granting delegates unparalleled viewing pleasure from every vantage point.

English Bay

English Bay, a meticulously crafted space that sets the stage for business meetings, conferences, and all types of cutting-edge events. Bask in the abundance of natural light that floods from the floor-to-ceiling windows, invigorated by the invigorating Pacific Ocean air that beckons from the private outdoor wrap-around terrace overlooking downtown Vancouver. Perfect for wedding ceremonies and cocktail receptions.

English Bay features:

- Equally divisible into 3 functions spaces namely Shaughnessy Room, Kerrisdale Room, and Kitsilano Room
- Custom-built air walls for complete noise reduction between rooms
- 11 ft. ceiling height featuring floor-to-ceiling windows allowing natural daylight.

Access to over 15,000 square feet meeting and event space located at the 2nd and 3rd floor.

Mott 32 restaurant

Mott 32 is one of the leading Chinese restaurants in the world. The provenance of their ingredients is of paramount importance to us as they embrace unique flavours discovered globally. Chefs utilize the latest in modern and innovative cooking techniques from around the world to create our dishes, which are principally Cantonese with some Beijing and Szechuan influences. Their food aims to bring the best out of time-honoured recipes passed down from generation to generation; it is this particular level of modernity, combined with a respect for tradition, that makes Mott 32 so spectacularly unique.

our Guest Rooms

The 147 rooms and suites at Paradox Hotel Vancouver are framed by an eye-catching, twisting tower designed by Arthur Erikson. The stylishly modern décor is highlighted by floor-to-ceiling windows welcoming in views of the Vancouver skyline. Owing to the hotel's unique architecture, no two views are alike, but all are spectacular.

Crafted to be an inviting respite from urban bustle, rooms envelop you with sophisticated touches like European oak hardwood floors and oversized beds with leather and chrome headboards. Nublado Italian marble bathrooms are decked out with heated floors, rain showers, FIG+YARROW bathroom amenities and velvety cotton robes. Tech-savvy appointments range from standards like free Wi-Fi and 55"+ Samsung flatscreens to Crestron® multi-lingual touchpads that allow you to fine-tune your scene by controlling the electric blinds, shades, lighting and temperature.
