Nmbr

Nmbr is a Canadian payroll infrastructure provider supporting SaaS companies through APIs and embedded fintech solutions.

[n]

Website

The brand identity underpinning the Nmbr site was created to establish a cohesive foundation for all projects, including presentations, client-facing prototypes, and components.

We built a Canadian payroll engine so you don't have to.

Quickly launch payroll and scale your business with Nmbr's embedded infrastructure.

Start Building

Payroll you could build in a weekend.

We simplify the process for developers to get from start to finish quickly and with ease. Our API allows straightforward management of company employees and payroll data, while our Compliant provides an optional add-on for the front-end.

Log Later

UX research found that users who logged every meal had higher success, while churn rose with missed entries. This concept lets users easily delay logging (like during business dinners) and complete it later at their convenience.

FORMAT

Format

Format.com is a self-serve web builder with tools crafted for professional photographers.

Design Editor Redesign

A transformative redesign of the core editing experience incorporated key user insights to guide users toward trial KPIs, boosting conversion rates. This included modernizing the outdated UI.
