Engaging with thought leaders and those with an interesting story, each podcast has a unique title based on the content.

With a successful pilot launch in 2024, and 200 downloads under our belt, our podcasts focus on the stories of individuals across a range of topics. Exhibitors

If a person with buying power doesn't attend BIDx™ The Big One themselves, then chances are they have asked one of their team to go see what products and services are out there to enable their organisation to be the best at bidding.

We've made the exhibitor area more accessible than ever. Not only are you right outside the main room, you're also where the buffet lunch is served. What better way to network with the membership than whilst grazing over some food? Not only have we created a space to drive higher footfall to the exhibitors, but the delegate badges will also include a QR code to the preferred contact details of the candidate; making opportunity capture and lead generation management far easier than ever before.

And nothing makes an exhibitor stand more attractive than giveaways. Whether you remind people of their "fresher's fair" days or you hold a raffle for a big prize, our members love 'free stuff'. Naturally if your giveaways are environmentally conscious, then that's even better. BIDx® The Big One

Widening Access Sponsor

Many of our members find attending TBO costly in time (either lost holiday or unable to earn as a freelancer) and money they may not have. Widening access to TBO will promote inclusivity and diversity within the industry by ensuring that financial constraints do not hinder the participation of talented individuals who might otherwise be unable to attend.

This inclusivity not only enriches the event by bringing in a wider range of perspectives and experiences but also fosters a sense of community and support within the industry.

Secondly, it can serve as an effective tool for talent discovery and development for sponsors. Attendees will often include young professionals and students who are eager to learn and contribute, but lack the resources to do so. By providing them with access to valuable learning and networking opportunities, sponsors can help cultivate the next generation of industry leaders.

Lastly, from a corporate social responsibility standpoint, sponsoring tickets enhances the reputation of the sponsor as a socially conscious and caring organisation, which can positively impact brand image and stakeholder relations.

We would like to acknowledge Shipley for inspiring this package as they have provided free TBO tickets for the last two years.

How many packages are on offer?

Across a number of categories that cover the work across our industry, professionals are nominated either individually or as teams to receive an award. During the ceremony, we showcase the shortlisted nominees and then present the winner with their awards trophy.

As the sponsor, you will be part of the announcement, stating why you sponsored that award, why the finalists got through and why the winner won. You'll hand over the glass trophy which shows the award category, APMP UK logo as well as your organisation's logo; and you get to pose for a photo too!

Each Award Sponsor will receive:

- 1-2 minute introduction/business overview before announcing the shortlist,
