THEME: MAKING SPACE

Entry Information

The 2027 Ausglass theme, Making Space, advocates for broader recognition of glass within contemporary art and deeper institutional support for glass artists. It asks who has access to the spaces, tools, networks and opportunities needed to sustain a career in glass.

Making Space calls for the inclusion of underrepresented voices, Indigenous knowledge systems and global dialogue. It also considers physical access to studios, representation in galleries and the importance of developing more sustainable glassmaking practices.

We invite Ausglass members to respond to this theme through an original T-shirt design that reflects their own interpretation of Making Space.

THE PRIZE

The winning artist will receive:

- One year of Ausglass membership
- One ticket to the 2027 Ausglass Conference
- One Ausglass merchandise pack, featuring their winning design

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Entrants must be current members of Ausglass.

By entering the competition, artists acknowledge that if their design is selected as the winner, they agree to grant the Australian Association of Glass Artists (Ausglass) permission to use the design on Ausglass conference merchandise, including T-shirts, tote bags and other items.

Proceeds from merchandise sales will support Ausglass initiatives, including the conference, exchange programs, community event funding and bursaries.

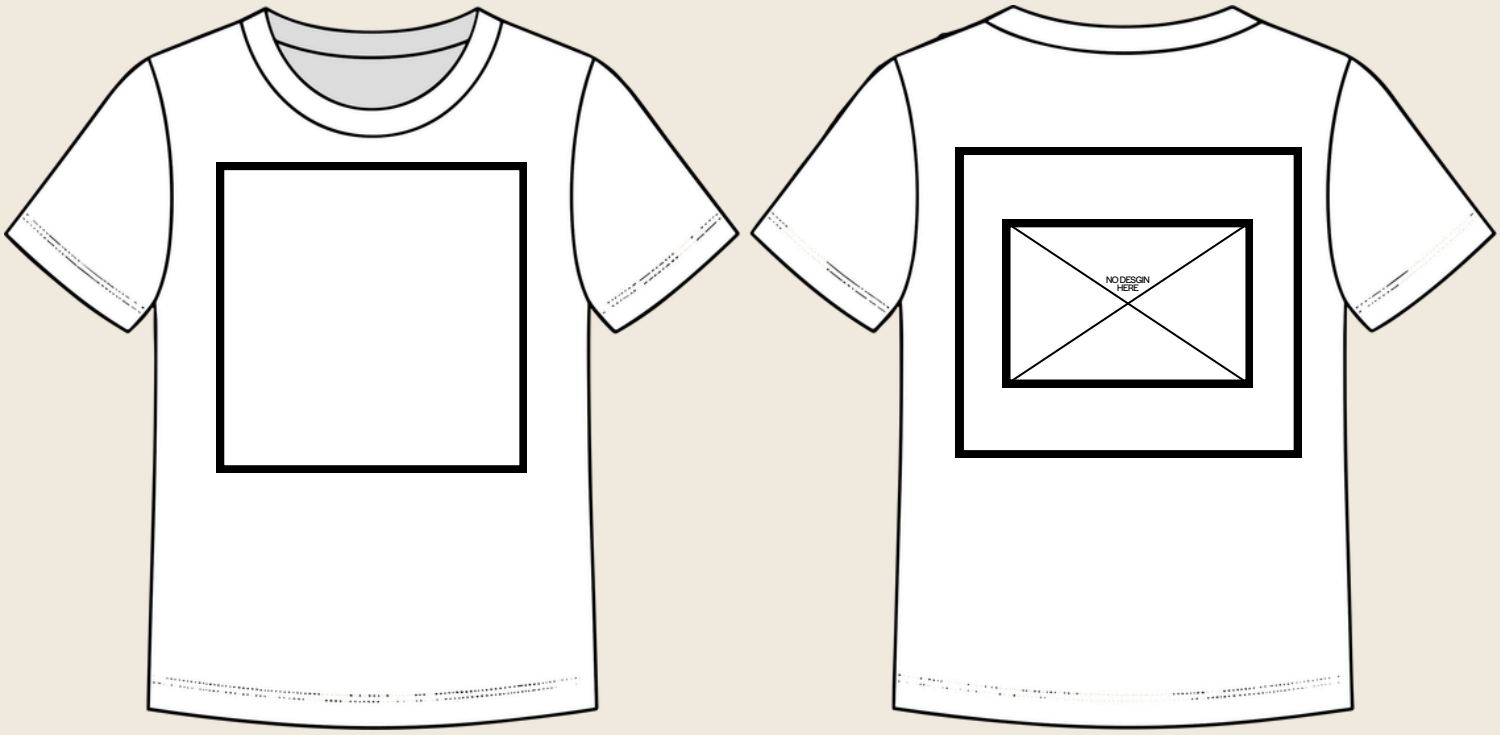

Make space. Share your perspective. Shape the future of glass.

We look forward to seeing how you interpret Making Space through your design.

To ensure consistent printing, front designs must fit within an 18 cm × 18 cm print area and back designs within a 20 cm × 18 cm print area.

These dimensions indicate the maximum printable space and do not need to appear in your artwork.

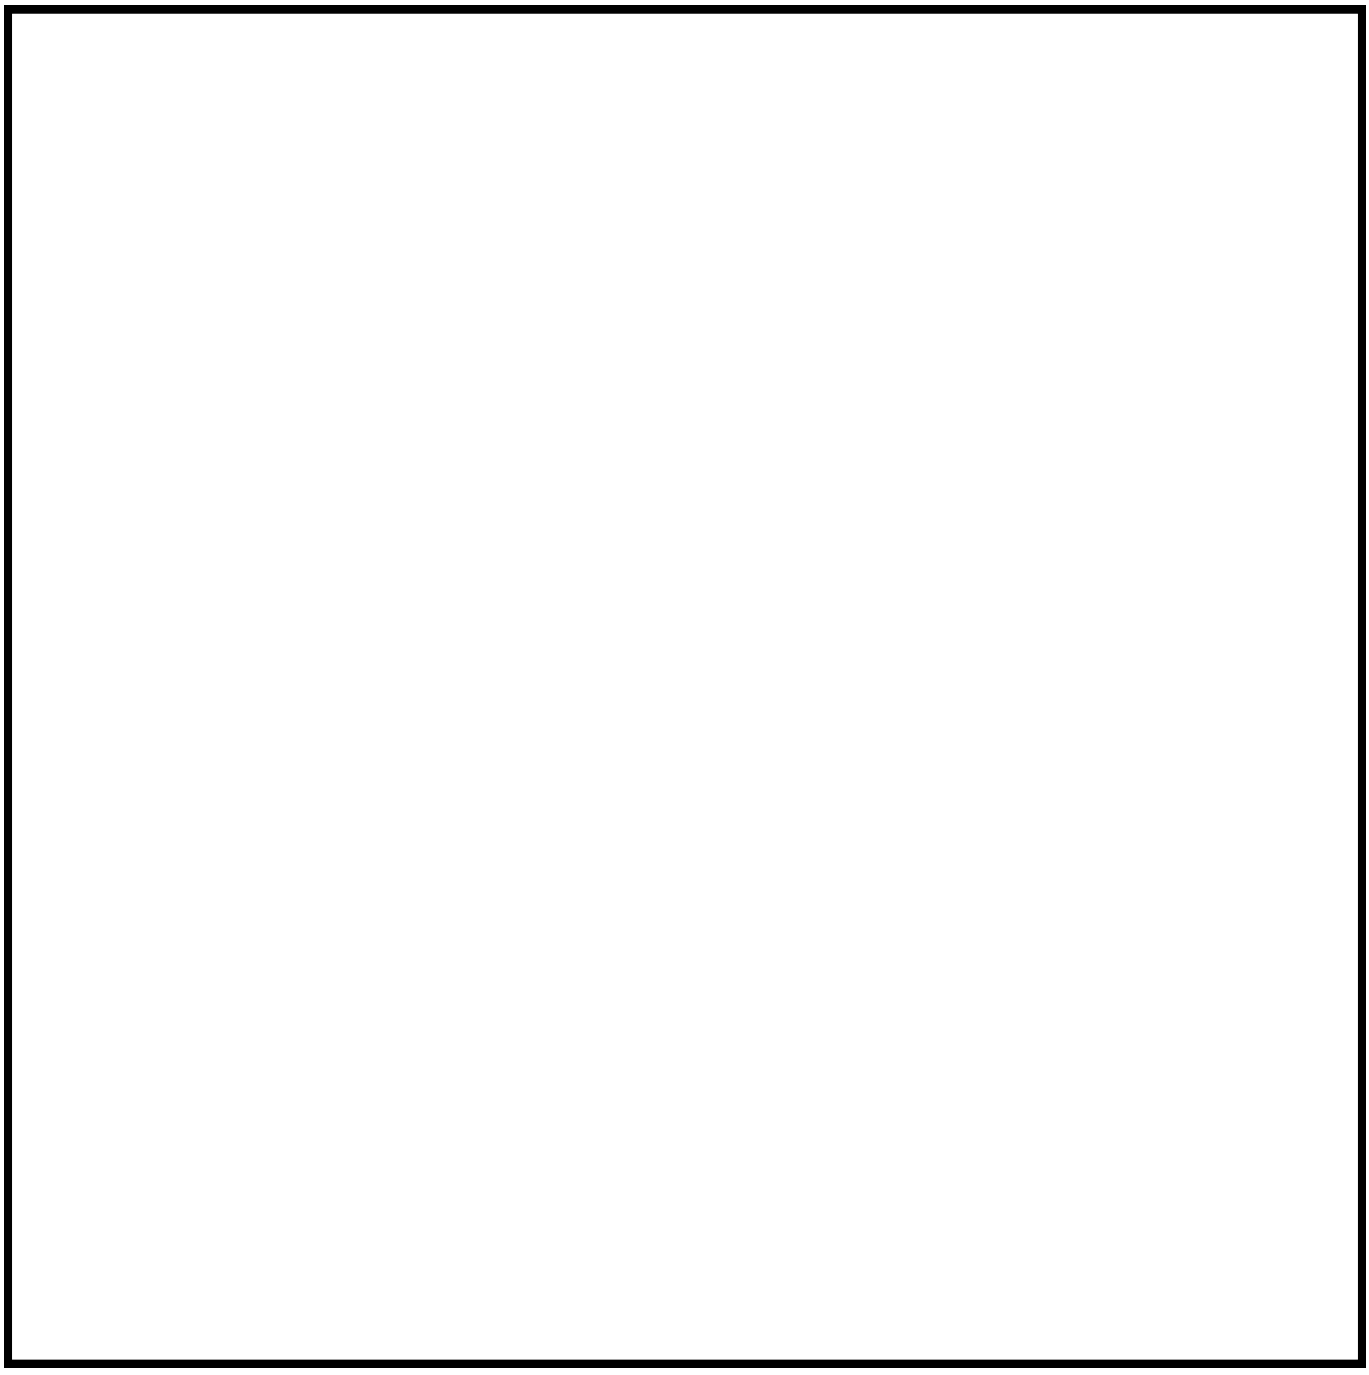

For back designs, the marked section is reserved for names. Please keep all important design elements, text, and graphics outside this area to ensure both the artwork and names remain clear and legible on the final T-shirt.
