

Privacy Policy – PGS Advisers

Effective Date: 29 September 2026

PGS Advisers ("we," "our," "us") is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you use our services, participate in our polling activities, or interact with us.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information:

1.1 Personal Information: Information that identifies you as an individual, such as your name, email address, phone number, and mailing address.

1.2 Survey Information: Data you provide through participation in our quantitative polling activities. Survey responses are anonymized and are not linked to your identity unless explicitly required and consented to by you.

1.3 Shareholder and Register Information: Where we are engaged by a listed company, its share registry or its advisers, we may collect information about securityholders from a company's register, including names, addresses and securityholding details, and may obtain or verify telephone numbers associated with that information through third party contact-matching providers.

1.4 Sensitive Information: In limited circumstances and only with your consent, we may collect sensitive information as defined under Australian privacy law, if required for our services.

2. How We Collect Information

We collect information in the following ways:

2.1 Directly From You: When you provide it to us, such as by filling out forms, subscribing to our services, participating in surveys, or contacting us.

2.2 From Third Parties: Where you have authorized us to collect information, where it is publicly available and reasonably necessary for an engagement, or from listed companies, share registers or their advisers who engage our services, and from contact-matching or number search providers we instruct to locate or verify contact details.

3. How We Use Your Information

We may use your information to:

- Provide, manage, and improve our services.
- Conduct and analyze quantitative polling and survey activities.
- Communicate with you, including responding to inquiries and sending updates.
- Comply with legal obligations and resolve disputes.

- Conduct marketing, with your consent where required by law.
- Analyse securityholder registers, contact and communicate with securityholders, and support securityholder engagement, proxy solicitation and corporate action campaigns on behalf of clients.

4. Unsolicited Personal Information

If we received unsolicited personal information that is not required for our services, we will securely destroy or de-identify it unless necessary for a lawful purpose.

5. Disclosure of Your Information

We may share your information with:

5.1 Service Providers: Third parties that perform services on our behalf, such as outbound telephone services, contact-matching or number search providers, data processing or survey analysis providers.

5.2 Legal Authorities: Where required by law or to protect our legal rights.

6. Data Security

We implement reasonable security measures to protect your personal information, survey responses, and securityholder and register information. All survey data is anonymized and securely stored to prevent unauthorized access.

Securityholder and register information is held on a confidential basis with access restricted to personnel working on the relevant engagement, consistent with our information security policy and access control standard.

7. Your Rights and Choices

Under Australian privacy law, you have the right to:

- Access your personal information.
- Correct any inaccuracies in your personal information.
- Withdraw consent for specific types of data processing.
- Lodge a complaint with the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) if you believe your privacy has been breached.

We take reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information we collect is accurate, complete, and up-to-date. We encourage you to contact us if details need to be updated.

If you would like to access personal information about you that we hold, correct any inaccuracies in that information, withdraw consent for specific types of data processing, or complain to us about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, please email us at the email address listed below. We will respond to your request within 30 days.

8. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We do not use cookies or tracking technologies to collect information or improve your experience on our website.

9. International Data Transfers

We are likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients. It is likely that some recipients will be located in New Zealand. We will take steps required by law before disclosing personal information to an overseas recipient, including assessing the recipient's privacy practices.

If we transfer your information outside Australia, we will ensure it is protected in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable laws.

10. Automated Decision Making

We do not currently use a computer program to make, or to do a thing substantially and directly related to making, a decision that could reasonably be expected to significantly affect your rights or interests using your personal information.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time.
