Happy Christmas and Thank you!

May God bless you all this Christmas and I hope it is peaceful and joyful for you, as we still have one more week of the Christmas season. And happy new year! A huge thank you to all who helped to make the church look so beautiful for this season, and to all who volunteer and help in the parish in any way. Thank you also to everyone for their generosity in cards and gifts for me and my dad, and for all the contributions to the parish not only over these last few weeks but over all the years. It has been a wonderful first Christmas for me here. A special thank you to Peter who played the organ at 3 of our Christmas Masses (as well as at a Mass in another parish) and to Chris who plays 12noon on a Sunday. I am sure they will inspire others to do something similar!
