

BelPeyi Studio

Intercultural Research, Strategy & Creation Services

For a sensitive and aesthetic diplomacy

Who we are

BelPeyi Studio is a research-creation studio specializing in intercultural and intersocial research and the development of community-based initiatives.

We explore the sensitive dynamics of territories, their memories, imaginaries and narratives, as well as the knowledge, practices and perspectives that emerge within them.

We support institutions and organizations in transforming cultural complexity and territorial potential into opportunities for valorization, cooperation and innovation.
