

Interoperability Strategy and Advisory Services

HAFFTY

Healthcare organizations, and in particular their information technology leaders, face a myriad of increasingly complex and diverse challenges with respect to managing interoperability requirements and opportunities in today's competitive landscape.

For leaders of health systems utilizing the MEDITECH EHR, Haffty Consulting is uniquely positioned to offer strategic advisory services tailored to your specific needs.

- Understand and Maximize organization-wide data exchange
- Increase regulatory awareness and reduce risk of financial penalties
- Provide education and strategies for adoption of Traverse to unlock its full potential
- Deliver an ROI through actionable plans that enable new efficiencies with fiscal responsibility

Haffty's Interoperability Expertise and Qualifications include:

MEDITECH-focused interoperability knowledge and leadership

Experienced regulatory and compliance experts

Interface migration and support services

Valued partnerships with complementary solution providers

HAFFTY

Solutions

Our team can offer Advisory Services tailored to creating project and implementation plans that help organizations understand and prioritize adopting additional healthcare exchange technologies to:

Further end user and patient satisfaction

Reduce cost and risk through system consolidation

Meet mandates and compliance requirements

Haffty's Interoperability Strategy and Advisory Service Offerings

Interface and Exchange Mapping

Inclusive of interfaces, apps, archives and devices: A blueprint inventory of all points of an organization's exchange topology.

Interoperability Gap Analysis

Roadmap to streamline interfaces across the enterprise via consolidation into Traverse and new product onboarding.

Regulatory Compliance Assessment

Actionable report addressing the impacts of TEFCA, QHINs, HIE's, MIPS and other state-based interoperability regulations and incentives.

Info Blocking Assessments & Remediation

Identify nonconformities and offer corrective action plans to combat potential issues and penalty risk with current interoperability practices and information provisioning policies.

Ad Hoc Assessment and Support

Flexible offering based on individual client needs, ranging from per hour consultation to strategic planning and monthly subscriptions.

Contact Us Today - info@hafftyconsulting.com

Healthcare Interoperability is dynamic and challenging. Make 2025 your year to call on Haffty Consulting to set up a complimentary advisory consultation with our Interoperability Practice Lead.