

Refresh Global Logistics LLC

Restricted Commodities

The following list identifies categories of commodities that are considered restricted for transportation by Refresh Global Logistics LLC. All shipments containing these commodities are subject to prior approval, additional documentation, regulatory requirements, or may be refused altogether. Customers are responsible for full disclosure of all commodities at the time of booking.

- Restricted Commodities Include, But Are Not Limited To:
- Ammunition, firearms, and weapon parts
- Explosives and pyrotechnics
- Radioactive materials
- Compressed gases (flammable, non-flammable, toxic)
- Flammable liquids and solids
- Toxic and infectious substances
- Corrosive materials (including batteries and acids)
- Oxidizers and organic peroxides
- Magnetized materials
- Marble, granite, or stone slabs not properly crated
- Used or scrap electronics and machinery
- Lithium batteries (loose or improperly packed)
- Live animals or animal carcasses
- Perishable foodstuffs or temperature-sensitive cargo without proper packaging
- Counterfeit goods or goods infringing intellectual property rights
- Precious metals, stones, or high-value jewelry (without prior approval)
- Currency, negotiable instruments, or valuable documents
- Human remains or body parts
- Cannabis, CBD, or hemp products (regardless of THC content)
- Alcohol and tobacco products (subject to country restrictions)
- Waste, including medical or chemical waste
- Personal Effects
- Commodities prohibited by any applicable local, national, or international law

Note: All Dangerous Goods (Hazardous Materials) must be disclosed at the time of quotation. Failure to do so may result in refusal, rebooking delays, penalties, or regulatory non-compliance.