

ITF UNION

ENGLAND
TAEKWON-DO

Code of Conduct for Students (Adults)

As an adult member of ITF Union England, we'd like you to:

- Be responsible for your own safety.
- Promote and demonstrate the tenets of Taekwon-Do.
- Look after equipment and premises as if they were your own.
- Make it to classes and gradings on time.
- Bring the right kit to class and make sure your Dobok or kit is clean.
- Maintain personal hygiene and cleanliness.
- Not smoke or consume alcohol on the premises or during classes, gradings, competitions or when representing us.
- Be mindful of the reputation of the Club and act to positively promote and represent ITF Union England.
- Refrain from any antisocial or illegal behaviour either during Club activities or in your own time.
- Respect and celebrate difference in our club and not discriminate against anyone else on the grounds of gender, age, race, sexual orientation or ability.
- Report any incidents of bullying, including homophobia and transphobia even if you're just a witness.
- Treat other students with respect and appreciate that everyone has different levels of skill and talent.
- Make ITF Union England a welcoming and friendly place to be.
- Support and encourage your fellow students.
- Respect your instructors, and the instructors and students from other clubs.
- Be a good sport and demonstrate appropriate etiquette.
- Play by the rules.
- Follow our safety policies.

As a student, we understand you have the right to:

- Enjoy classes, gradings and other events as a member of ITF Union England.
- Be aware who you can talk to if something's not right and be listened to.
- Be respected by instructors and other students and be treated fairly.
- Feel welcomed, valued and not judged based on your race, gender, age, sexuality or ability.
- Be encouraged, supported and develop skills with our help.
- Be looked after if there's an accident or injury and have a contact informed if necessary.
