

AEONrv Launches New Financing & Warranty Programs to Make Off-Road RV Ownership Easier and More Accessible

Reno, NV – April 2025 — AEONrv, the first true all-season, electric-cabin, off-road RV, has introduced a comprehensive financing program in partnership with Epic Finance, a leading national provider of recreational vehicle financing. This initiative directly addresses the rapidly increasing popularity of off-grid travel and adventure tourism by making AEONrv accessible to a wider range of outdoor enthusiasts.

With connections to the nation's largest banks, credit unions, and specialized RV lenders, AEONrv's comprehensive financing program provides customers with competitive rates, flexible terms, and additional products like gap insurance—all without needing external bank financing. This new financing and warranty offering is also helping AEONrv deliver on its goal to ship over 100 vehicles this year, by making the path to ownership easier and supporting the company's production targets.

“Our mission is to make off-grid, all-season travel achievable for everyone,” said Jim Ritchie, Founder and CEO of AEONrv. “With Epic Finance, we're directly responding to the growing trend of travelers seeking flexible, affordable financing options for innovative recreational vehicles.”

We're excited to eliminate financial barriers and welcome more adventurers to the AEONrv community.”

The streamlined online application process makes it easy for qualified buyers to quickly obtain personalized loan options directly from AEONrv, simplifying the financing journey and accelerating ownership.

“Rates were competitive, no BS or pressure to add extra unneeded financing products or insurance. It was nice to get everything done with AEONrv instead of shopping around for financing,” said Z.H., an AEONrv customer.

Chris Rowden, Director of Sales at Epic Finance, added,

“AEONrv isn't just building another RV—they're reinventing adventure travel. At Epic, we specialize in recreational lending and pride ourselves on our fast, flexible, and transparent process. AEONrv's forward-thinking approach aligns perfectly with ours, and we're proud to provide their customers with seamless financing that helps them hit the road confidently and quickly.”

In addition to financing, AEONrv is now offering an extended warranty program that enhances our market leading 2 year/24,000 mile end-to-end warranty, which also includes a 10 year warranty on the integrity of the box against leaks or structural defects. We are now offering 5 year, 7 year and lifetime warranties on the AEONrv, contact sales@aeonrv.com for details and pricing.

AEONrv continues to set the industry standard for innovation, offering:

- Advanced four-season insulation with energy efficient heating and cooling
- Smart electrical system with solar power, lithium batteries, and remote monitoring
- Modern interiors with quality kitchen cabinetry, a private bathroom, and sleeping for up to four
