

ORIGIN DUCTWORKS

TRANSITION RECTANGLE to ROUND

Rectangular to Round Transitions (also referred to as square nozzles when used for localized collection) are designed to connect square or rectangular ductwork to round duct systems. They feature a round SNAPLOCK or flanged end and a square or rectangular end, making them ideal for transitioning duct shapes or serving as a hood for dust or fume collection near the source.

Standard Metal Thickness ga.	Square End Opening Area in.
22	16-144
20	145-324
18	325-576
16	577-1296
14	1297-2304
12	2305-3600
10	3601-22500

