

"Having N2S.Global as a partner represents our continued commitment to engaging with a wider workforce solutions ecosystem. We are laser-focused on delivering independent business talent and making this process as frictionless as possible for our clients. Working with N2S.Global will provide our clients with proven solutions to ensure their external talent is managed and offboarded compliantly. We are particularly impressed with the genuine commitment to diversity and fostering an inclusive workforce at N2S.Global and feels this adds further options to embrace a diverse supplier base within our customers."

Sandeep Dhillon, Talmix CEO

Talmix and N2S.Global Announce Partnership

Talmix and N2S.Global, a leading workforce solutions company, have announced a strategic partnership to provide clients globally with on-demand talent solutions and compliance capabilities.

This partnership provides N2S.Global clients with access to business talent through the Talmix marketplace and enable streamlined Employer of Record (EOR), Independent Contractor Compliance and Global Mobility services for the Talmix client base. Read more HERE.

Operations Talent: Maximizing Value with Strategic Procurement

Maryana has a proven track record in leading major global companies and early-stage startups through process and technology improvement initiatives focused on reducing costs, increasing revenue and optimizing shareholders value.

She is a strategic thinker with top-tier consulting background and 15+ years of industry experience in sourcing, supply chain, and operational performance improvement. Whether it is developing new suppliers, redesigning processes, or launching new products, Maryana partners with CPOs and Procurement executives to lead their teams to success. Read more...