

River Valley Community Bank announces the Promotion of Phil Tissier to Vice President/Commercial Loan Officer, covering the northern Nevada market.

Yuba City, California, August 9, 2022 -- River Valley Community Bancorp (OTC markets: RVCB) with its wholly owned subsidiary, River Valley Community Bank (collectively referred to as the "Bank") is pleased to announce the promotion of Phil Tissier to Vice President/Commercial Loan Officer. In his new capacity, Mr. Tissier will assume a leadership role in the Bank's lending and community outreach in Reno, NV, and surrounding communities. In January of this year, the Bank had announced the opening of its Reno loan production office located at 401 Ryland Street Ste. 205, Reno, NV 89502.

Mr. Tissier was born and raised in Reno where he attended Reno High School and is a graduate of the University of Nevada, Reno, with a Bachelor of Science in Finance. Prior to joining the Bank, he served in the Nevada Air National Guard for eight years as a civil engineer and was deployed overseas in support of operations in the Middle East. Mr. Tissier started with River Valley Community Bank in 2018 as a Loan Officer for the Bank's Grass Valley, CA office and has extensive experience in wealth management, private lending, and government finance.

Phil Tissier said, "It has been a privilege working, and growing, with RVCB over the years. I look forward to developing the Bank's presence in the Reno and surrounding market areas. The bank provides an excellent relationship focused lending option in the growing Reno market."

John M. Jelavich, President and CEO commented, "Phil is a solid member of our RVCB team. He has demonstrated his ability to listen to, and advocate for our customers while providing creative and responsive lending solutions. Phil is a highly proficient lender that embodies the relationship brand of banking RVCB is known to deliver. We are very pleased to be announcing his promotion and are excited about the leadership role Phil will be providing in the northern Nevada market."
