FLEUROPEAN

Founded by Emily Avenson, Fleuropean is a floral studio and lifestyle philosophy rooted in the belief that beauty, nature, and intentional living are essential to personal wellbeing. Based in Belgium, Fleuropean has gained international recognition for its poetic approach to floral design, its reverence for seasonal cycles, and its slow, hands-on ethos.

More than a flower studio, Fleuropean fosters spaces, both physical and emotional, for creative growth, mindful expression, and the rediscovery of life's simplest pleasures. Through workshops, retreats, and floral storytelling, the studio has cultivated a global community of kindred spirits who value depth, softness, and the art of living well.
