RIDING SAFARI CLUB

Founded by Ginevra and Irene Rossini, Riding Safari Club is a one-of-a-kind equestrian members' club dedicated to curating exceptional riding adventures around the world.

Their curated riding safaris take members to remote and extraordinary destinations, where every journey is an invitation to explore the world on horseback and experience each place with authenticity, curiosity, and effortless style.

Guardians of Provence is a four-day riding safari that traces marshlands, forests, and beaches once ridden only by the guardians, the cowboys of Camargue, in a journey where nature, culture, and heritage move as one.

Guardians of Provence is a soulful invitation to ride as the guardians do - four to five hours a day in the saddle, aboard Camargue's pure white horses, small yet powerful, bred for generations to move through marsh and water. From an introductory ride across the estate to a final morning spent herding bulls alongside the region's own horsemen, the journey builds toward a rare and authentic understanding of a living tradition.

RIDING LEVEL: Intermediate to experienced TIME IN THE SADDLE: 4 to 5 hours a day

HORSES: Ridden on "Selle Gardiane," designed for long hours in the saddle

GROUP SIZE: 6 to 10 guests

RIDING LEVEL: Intermediate to experienced

WEIGHT LIMIT: Maximum suggested 90kg / 200lbs

WHY IT STANDS OUT

Scattered across marshland, forest, and shoreline, this is a landscape few ever see from the saddle - and fewer still alongside the guardians who have called it home for centuries.

- Ancestral Horsemanship: Ride under the guidance of Camargue's own guardians and take part in their centuries-old art of cattle selection and herding on horseback.
- Untamed Landscapes: Trace the mouth of the Petit Rhône through salt meadows, pine forests, ponds, and lagoons.
- A Storied Refuge: Return each evening to Le Mas de Peint, a 17th-century farmhouse where authenticity meets understated charm.

KEY EXPERIENCES:

- Introductory Ride: Meet your white horse for a two-hour ride across the property, attuning to the gentle contrasts of salt meadows and pine groves.
- The Pin Fourcat Ride: Journey through one of Camargue's largest and wildest estates, following the mouth of the Petit Rhône past marshlands, lagoons, and pine forests, with lunch by the sea.
- Coastal Encounters: Ride toward flamingo-dotted salt lagoons and seaside fishing villages, guided by one of the region's most experienced guardians, before an authentic lunch "Chez Philippe."
- The Guardian Ride: Join the herdsmen on horseback for a rare, hands-on glimpse into the centuries-old work of cattle selection and herding among the estate's bulls and horses.
- Provençal Dining: Savor Mediterranean flavors and local ingredients each evening at the Mas' restaurant, where refined, authentic cuisine closes the day.
- Le Mas de Peint: Unwind between rides with peaceful moments by the pool, long strolls through the gardens, and the understated charm of a 17th-century farmhouse.
