

Big Mic Sports is the home of fan-powered sports commentary. Whether you're a die-hard fan, aspiring announcer, or just love hearing the game called your way, we give you the mic.

We believe every sport deserves a voice—and not just the corporate one. That's why we're building a platform where anyone can call the action, share their take, and even get paid doing it.

We're currently in beta, offering free game broadcasts while we test and grow. Stay tuned—paid announcer subscriptions are launching soon.

Any game. Any voice.
