

Zygomatic Master Course

Level 1 — a total immersion in the heart of reality

Two days at Dr Zarrine's facility. Live surgery, unfiltered, with everything the rehabilitation involves: the operating room, the logistics, the prosthetic work and the entire digital workflow. Then hands-on practice on models.

DATES	FORMAT	FACULTY	FEE
10–11 December 2026	Small group	Sepehr Zarrine	€2,800 €2,500 ITI members

DAY ONE 08:30 – 19:00
08:30	Welcome coffee
09:00	Case presentation and preparation
09:30	Live surgery Quad zygoma under local anaesthesia, with immediate loading 01 Regional anaesthesia 02 Incisions and access flap 03 Drilling sequence and implant selection 04 Implant placement and abutment selection 05 Suturing 06 Digital impression
12:30	Debriefing
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Hands-on session on models
16:00	Visit to the dental laboratory Prosthetic stages of the provisional bridge
16:30	The digital workflow From the digital impression to the definitive prosthesis
17:30	Loading of the provisional bridge
19:00	END OF DAY ONE An informal dinner follows, for those who wish to join

DAY TWO 08:30 – 13:30

08:30	Welcome
09:00	Review of the surgical steps
10:00	Complications
10:30	How to avoid complications
11:00	Quad zygoma surgery in 3D
12:30	Case discussion Cases brought by the participants
13:30	CLOSE

Pastries are waiting for you on arrival each morning and during the breaks. Lunch is included on site. You are also invited to join us for a convivial dinner after the first day, for those who wish to.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

WHO IT IS FOR

Dental, oral and maxillofacial surgeons with at least five years' practice in implantology, familiar with immediate loading and full-arch protocols.

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

A certificate of attendance, and a diploma on successful completion of the practical work and assessment.

WHERE

Zarrine Academy
4bis rue Alphonse Matter
88100 Saint-Dié-des-Vosges
France

REGISTRATION

zarrine-academy.com

CONTACT

zarrine.academy@gmail.com

FEE

€2,800 · €2,500 for ITI members