Hours of Work: Full-time (35 hours per week)

Application Deadline: January 21, 2026

Purpose

The Sport for Social Development (SSD) Supervisor plays a crucial role in delivering high-quality sport and recreation programming to promote wellness and social development in Indigenous communities. This position is responsible for building local capacity to sustain these initiatives long-term.

Key Responsibilities

- Oversee the full scope of SSD programming, including day-to-day operations.
- Supervise SSD staff, providing training, mentorship, and performance management.
- Manage the program budget and ensure responsible allocation of funds.
- Coordinate and facilitate various sport and recreation initiatives, including the Urban Bike Program and the North-End Multi-Sport Program.
- Build and maintain strong relationships with community partners to ensure program success.
- Prepare and submit regular reports on program outcomes and performance.

Qualifications

- Post-secondary education in Kinesiology, Recreation Management, Indigenous Studies, Social Work, Education, or a related field.
- Minimum 3 years of experience coordinating sport, recreation, or community-based programs.
- A combination of relevant education and equivalent work experience will also be considered.
- National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) certification (minimum Community Coach level; higher levels considered an asset).
- Proven ability to develop, deliver, and evaluate sport/recreation programs.
- Budget management and program reporting experience.
- Experience working with Indigenous communities or Indigenous-led organizations preferred.
- Strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills.
- Ability to manage multiple projects and deadlines effectively.
- Valid Class 5 driver's license and willingness to travel within Manitoba.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their resumes and a cover letter outlining their qualifications and experience to HR Consultant, Marie Murdock at aaniin@mariemurdock.ca by noon on January 21, 2026.
