Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Programs for the Homeless - A three-phase programmatic collaboration that consist of three components, outreach, relief, and empowerment. We host events six days per week where we interact with the homeless in Conroe. At these events, we provide food and clothing to offer relief. For those who are ready to make a change in their lives, we offer the opportunity for empowerment through our transitional living program. In this program, we provide shelter, transportation, education, and mentorship to the men and women in the program. Our programs to the homeless serve approximately 80 people per day.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Programs for Children - DESTINYKids - Four nights per week, Compassion United hosts after school programs in south east Conroe. The programs provide food, education, encouragement, and resources to children in a marginalized community. Each night of the week a different age group is served. The outcome is that children will receive hope and support to break out of cycles of poverty and addiction that have plagued that community for decades. We reach approximately 100 children per week.
