

Why AEP?

An incredible semester in Prague awaits you.

MISSION

AEP's mission is to provide undergraduates with an unmatched semester abroad in Prague through dedicated instruction, international integration, and excellent program support.

STUDENTS

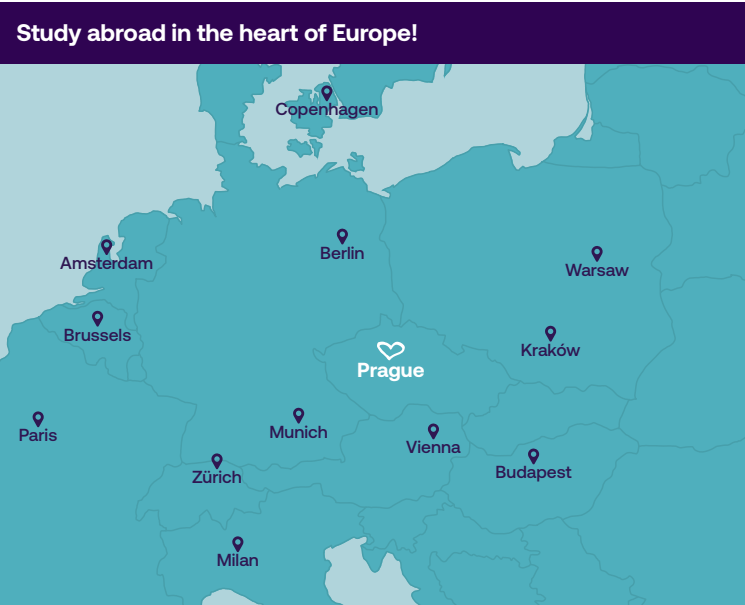

AEP welcomes motivated and accomplished students from diverse educational backgrounds. AEP also values personal experiences outside of college, as well as future aspirations.

LOCAL ENROLLMENT

AEP students take classes alongside Czech and European exchange students. This international atmosphere creates a blend of perspectives and opportunities for immersion.

IMMERSION

Outside the classroom, AEP students explore the cultures of Central Europe firsthand. Program trips, excursions, and immersion activities offer opportunities to discover new places, people, and perspectives.

aep
Academic
Experience in Prague

STUDY ABROAD AT CHARLES UNIVERSITY
Prague, Czech Republic

aep

Academic
Experience in Prague

AEP is an undergraduate liberal arts study abroad program at CERGE-EI and Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic.

With AEP, students learn new topics, study a foreign language, gain wider perspectives, and experience cultural immersion, while living in one of Europe’s most historic cities.

Crucially, AEP offers a personalized approach to study abroad. Students receive all the resources essential to a rewarding semester.

We invite you to learn more about our program—and to join us. An incredible semester in Prague awaits you.

Liberal Arts & Economics Programs

No More Than 15 Students Per Class

Located in Schebeck Palace in the Heart of Prague

Apartment Accommodations in City Center

Supportive Environment with Dedicated Staff

Take Course with Czech & European Students

Transportation Pass Included

Excursions in Czech Republic and across Central Europe

Opportunity to Travel Independently

Take 5 Classes During the Semester

Transcript Issued by Charles University

24/7 Emergency Support

aeprague.org

“My professors were incredibly helpful and supportive. They were always available to answer questions. I felt like they were as excited to have us as we were to be there.” –Filip, Villanova University

Curriculum

The AEP curriculum infuses Central European topics into a wide variety of liberal arts subjects.

SUBJECTS

Students from many different majors will find courses that meet their interests and academic requirements in subjects such as:

Anthropology	Economics	Literature
Architecture	Environmental Studies	Philosophy
Art History	Film & Media Studies	Political Science
Communications	History	Psychology
Cultural Studies	International Relations	Sociology

CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS & FINANCE

Deepen your knowledge of economics & finance. Enroll in the certificate program to build your resume, broaden your network and connect with professionals in the field through site visits and networking opportunities.

FACULTY

AEP professors are leading scholars in their fields and hold distinguished teaching credentials. Faculty members are drawn from universities, government and industry.

CZECH LANGUAGE

All AEP students enroll in an elementary Czech language course. This course spans the entire semester and includes an intensive session during orientation.

Questions? Email us at info@aeprague.org

