Thora Vingård

Here at Thora Vingård, we are all wine lovers. We live and breathe wine every day — out in the vineyard, among the vines, in the winery, and here in our restaurant.

Building a wine list is one of my favorite things to do. After years of travelling through wine regions around the world, meeting growers and winemakers, and learning about their vineyards and terroirs, it is with a humble heart that I present Flora's wine collection — a mix of idols, mentors, friends and producers we admire, with hopefully something for every guest.

A wine list should never stand still. It should evolve, grow and tell new stories over time. Although much has happened since we first opened our doors, I still feel that this is only the beginning.
