

Annexure IV

5.2 Curriculum Development - Rules / Regulations / Procedure and when was the curriculum last updated?

2. What are the Rules/ regulations/ procedure for revision of the curriculum and when was the curriculum last updated?

As a process structured feedback is obtained from various stake holders such as:

- Students
- Parent
- Alumni
- Industry Representative
- Faculty

Relevant questionnaire is made and shared with each stakeholder and their responses obtained on curriculum and content of the course.

The responses so obtained are analysed and shared with respective schools. Based on the relevance of the feedback given, the point is proposed at the Board of Studies Meeting of the respective school for review and for recommendation for the necessary amendments required to the curriculum of the course.

The same when recommended at the Board of Studies of schools is placed collectively before the Academic Council. Based on deliberations at the Academic Council the recommendations of Board of Studies may be approved and with its recommendation placed before Board of Management for final approval. If approved, the same would be informed to the respective schools for implementation.

After the complete cycle is complete the analysis of the feedback and the changes made in the curriculum is updated on the university website.
