

Worksheet 1

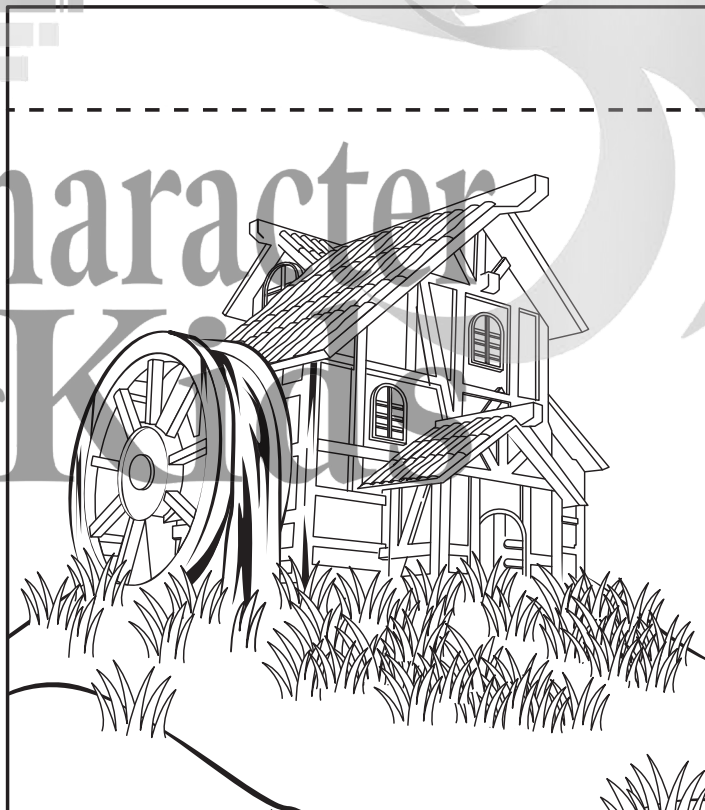

Theme Focus:
Humility and Selflessness

In the story, Donkey is very humble when serving others. He is not seen or noticed while he turns the mill to make water flow to the garden. He is selfless because he does not think about himself, but about how he can help others.

1. In the box on the next page, write ways in which you can also do hidden acts of kindness for others.
2. On the trees, write how your hidden kindness can give life to others.
3. Colour in the mill below. Cut and glue the top flap over the box so that your acts of kindness are hidden, just like the donkey is hidden.
4. Colour the mill, stream and decorate the trees with fruit or flowers.
