

Worksheet 4

Theme Focus:
Responsibility and Sacrifice

In the story, Donkey takes on the responsibility of turning the waterwheel hour after hour, day after day. He is faithful to his duty, even though it is boring, uncomfortable and becomes increasingly difficult. Responsibility often requires sacrifice, as it can involve giving up personal time, comforts or freedoms. Sacrificing something to fulfill a responsibility can lead to a meaningful life, but it's a conscious choice and not always easy.

Colour in the donkey turning the waterwheel.

Draw a picture of you doing something that requires responsibility and sacrifice.
