

Worksheet 2

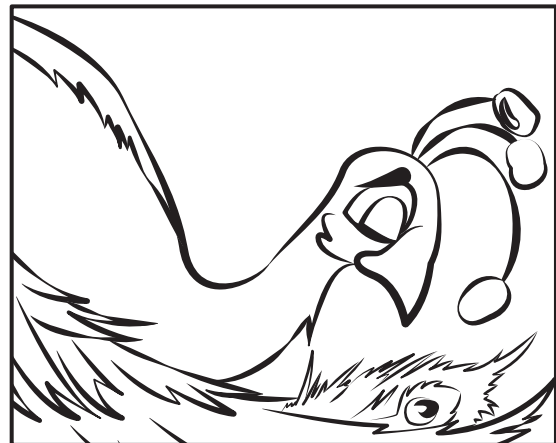

Theme Focus:
Using Your Gifts for Others

At the beginning of the story, the bull, the peacock and the nightingale all brag about their gifts; the bull's strength, the peacock's beauty and the nightingale's voice. The three animals wanted to show off their gifts only to be recognised as the greatest in the garden. At the end of the story, each animal uses their gift to honour the donkey. They share their gift to serve, bring joy and show their appreciation to him.

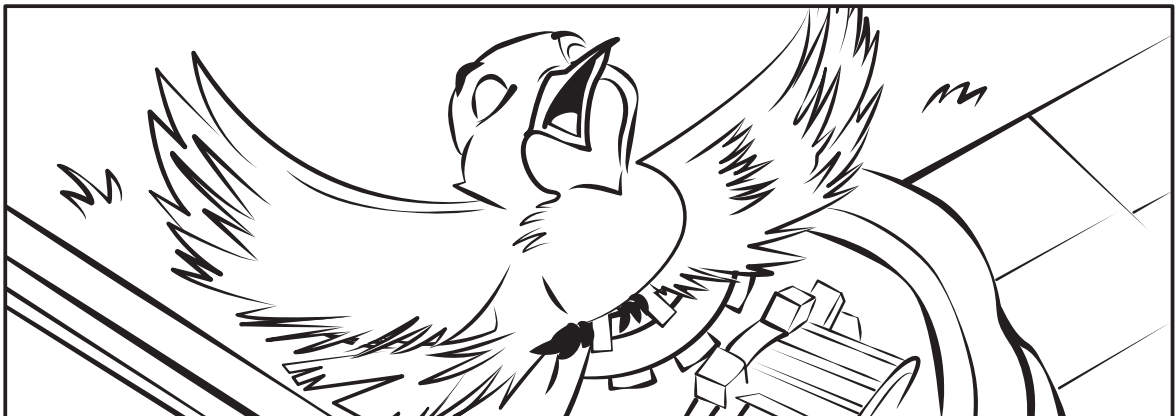

1. Colour in the pictures of the animals sharing their gifts with the donkey.
2. In the box on the next page, draw a picture of yourself or someone you know using their gifts or talents to serve and bring joy to others.

Barty uses his strength to serve Donkey by turning the waterwheel.

Penny gives one of her own beautiful feathers to thank and show her appreciation to Donkey.

Nora honours Donkey by using her voice to sing him a song to bring him joy.

In the box, draw a picture of yourself or someone you know using their gifts or talents for others.
