GENERAL INFORMATION

The BELON ceiling fixture is a compact architectural luminaire characterized by its crisp geometry and understated presence. Constructed from aluminum with an integrated acrylic diffuser, it delivers focused downward illumination with soft diffusion, making it ideal for corridors, entryways, kitchens, and modern living spaces. Its low-profile square form allows it to blend seamlessly into ceilings while providing reliable, efficient light output. Available in multiple power options and a wide range of finishes, BELON offers a versatile solution for residential and commercial interiors where clarity, simplicity, and refined design are essential.
