

GENERAL INFORMATION

SUBWAY STONE 9 is a decorative multi-light pendant composition defined by its clustered arrangement of textured glass elements and refined brass structure. The layered configuration creates depth and visual rhythm, transforming the fixture into a sculptural centerpiece within the space. Each glass diffuser delivers a combination of direct and softly diffused illumination, producing a warm and intimate atmosphere ideal for hospitality and residential interiors. Designed to balance decorative presence with functional lighting, SUBWAY STONE 9 introduces material richness and architectural elegance to dining areas, lounges, and feature installations.
