

GENERAL INFORMATION

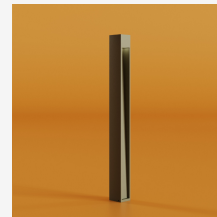

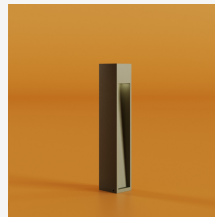

STATUM RUST G is a compact outdoor garden luminaire designed to provide subtle, controlled illumination in landscape and residential environments. Featuring a clean geometric form and a rust-effect finish, the fixture integrates naturally into outdoor settings, adding both functional lighting and architectural character. Engineered for downward, symmetrical light distribution, STATUM RUST G delivers soft, glare-controlled illumination ideal for pathways, garden beds, and low-level accent lighting. Its durable construction and weather-resistant finish ensure reliable performance in exterior conditions while maintaining a refined, minimalist aesthetic.
