

GENERAL INFORMATION

The IRIS is a refined linear pendant that balances clean geometry with soft, luminous accents. Its slender brass structure is paired with opal glass diffusers to create a visually light composition that delivers warm, evenly distributed illumination. Designed for dining areas, kitchen islands, and collaborative spaces, IRIS provides a 360° ambient glow while maintaining a precise, architectural presence. Subtle proportions and carefully selected finishes allow the fixture to integrate seamlessly into contemporary and transitional interiors, offering both functional lighting and understated elegance.
