

The Blood Covenant

Syllabus

Course Text(s): The Bible
 The Power of the Blood Covenant*, Malcolm Smith

Course Description:

This course will focus on the importance of understanding the blood covenant as the basis for the Christian's relationship to God. The blood covenant is foundational to our understanding of salvation. Insights gained in this course of study will give a deeper understanding of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion, and the shed blood of Christ at Calvary as the final sacrifice God required to resolve man's sin problem.

Course Objectives and Goals:

When the student completes this course, they will:

- develop an understanding of covenant as the basis of one's relationship with God
- have a solid appreciation for the value of covenant from Genesis to Revelation
- understand salvation and their walk with God from the perspective of covenant
- have a practical understanding of blood covenant practices and ceremonies in the Old and New Testaments
- realize the power of commitment God has toward man because of the blood covenant
- discover how much more the Christian receives at salvation than eternal life 'one day'

Class Methodology of Teaching:

- Class lectures
- Student interaction
- Reading and textbook assignments
- Question and answer opportunities

Course Requirements:

1. Participate in classroom discussions.
2. Outside assignments (homework) — The Power of the Blood Covenant, Malcolm Smith
3. Class attendance and punctuality is required.
4. In case of an absence:
 - a. The student is required to watch the recording of the missed lecture before the next class.
 - b. The student is required to contact the school office for student handouts, homework assignments, etc.
 - c. The student is to be caught up and current by the next class – keeping the same pace with the instructor and other students.
