

Revival History — Syllabus

Pastor Phillip Fields

Course Textbook: Reformation to Revival – 500 Years of God’s Glory, Mathew Backholer

Course Description: This course is a survey of Revival History covering the past five hundred years. Students will learn about the move of God as recorded by church historians, revivalists, and reformers. The class will consist of class lectures taken from selected historical revivals and reading the textbook Reformation to Revival – 500 Years of God’s Glory. Upon completion of the class, students will learn how revival played a historical role in the formation of the church.

Course Objectives and Goals:

To empower students to learn to:

- Recognize the characteristics of a genuine move of God in contrast to a counterfeit move of God
- Recognize the significant revival movements that have taken place during the past five hundred years
- Recognize the strengths and weaknesses of the revivals in their historical context
- Recognize the key revivalists and reformers of the past 500 years
- Create a passionate appetite for personal, national, and global awakening

Class Methodology of Teaching:

1. Class lectures
2. Student interaction

3. Study of revival history
4. Personal application of revival principles

Course Requirements:

1. View class lectures
2. Outside assignments (homework):
