

THE FIVE-FOLD MINISTRY SYLLABUS

Paul T. Johnson, Adjunct Professor

Class Duration:

- six weeks

Course Textbook:

- The Church in the New Testament by Kevin J. Conner

Course Description:

This course extensively studies and thoroughly explains the five-fold ministry of apostles, prophets, evangelists, shepherds, and teachers. Given by Jesus Christ at His ascension to equip the saints for the work of service, these five ministries are still in existence today. Each of the five ministries will be accurately defined and distinguished. Students will be trained to identify, recognize, and honor these five ministries as the means through which Christ is building His victorious church.

Course Goals and Objectives:

Students will

- be able to recognize and identify all five ministries with accuracy
- have a deeper appreciation and honor for each of the ministries
- explain the importance of each of the five-fold ministries
- distinguish each of the ministries from the others
- point out the costs of ignoring any or all of the ministries
- examine challenges that prevent the five-fold from working together

Class Structure:

- video lectures
- closed-book lecture quizzes
- closed-book textbook quizzes
- written assignment
