

Elisha: The God-Touched Life— Syllabus

Professor Jeff Lyle

Course Textbook: Double Anointing by Dr. R.T. Kendall

Course Description:

In this course, KINEO students will study the life of the Prophet Elisha for seven sessions in order to learn valuable Kingdom Leadership and servant-ministry principles. Elisha's life is a study of what it looks like for a surrendered believer to operate in the supernatural, anointed power of God. Initiated with a call from Elijah for Elisha to leave his family's business, Elisha's ministry began as an understudy of Israel's great prophet, Elijah. After receiving a double portion of the anointing that rested upon Elijah, the ministry of Elisha contained numerous stunning miracles. These first seven weeks of studying Elisha's life and ministry place heavy emphasis upon his initial calling and training, his miracles over illness and infirmity, miracles over nature, and becoming an instrument of miraculous supply in times of need.

Course Objectives and Goals:

KINEO students will learn from studying Elisha's life that God often chooses unsuspecting people for great Kingdom purposes – and God expects them to answer His call. From there the student will learn about what spiritual promotion looks like in the Kingdom as Elisha spends years as a helper and humble servant to Elijah. This course will begin to equip current and future leaders to understand how to wait on God's timing, why we should expect and ask for great things from God, how to minister in spiritual discernment and power, and how to be a vessel of God's glory in our own generation. Elisha's simple approach, calm faith, and anointing with power will call each KINEO student into a higher realm that goes beyond human ingenuity, natural gifting, and practical experience. Elisha's testimony will cause each student to long for the God-touched life.

Class Methodology of Teaching:

1. Class lectures – majoring on David's life as revealed in 1 & 2 Samuel and the Psalms
2. Required reading – Double Anointing by Dr. R. T. Kendall
3. Notetaking from the in-class slides is important; nearly all of the quizzing and testing will come from the in-class lectures; there will also be material from the course textbook contained on quizzes and tests. Students must stay engaged and take notes while following the slides and printed outlines of each of the seven weeks of class time.

Course Requirements:

1. Participate in class discussions.
2. Outside assignments (homework):
 - Reading: Bible passages covered in class from week to week
 - Reading: Double Anointing
3. Class attendance and punctuality are required.
4. The textbook quiz is in accordance with the quiz timeline, regardless of an absences.
5. Students must pass all tests and quizzes.
6. Students must pass the final exam

Textbook reading assignments & quizzes — All textbook quizzes must be completed no later than the weekly assigned schedule. The student may work as quickly through the textbook and quizzes as he/she desires, but they cannot take the quizzes any later than the posted schedule.

Lecture quiz schedule - Weekly quizzes that cover material from classroom lectures will be assigned at the end of each week's class and will be located in your student portal. It is the student's responsibility to know this and to complete quizzes each week.

Textbook reading and quiz assignments are in your Intro Course.

All quizzes must be completed by Wednesday at 11:59pm EST prior to the next class on Thursday.
