

I'm not a bot

Central Academy of Technology and Arts is a top-rated public magnet school located in Monroe, North Carolina. With 846 students enrolled in grades 9-12, the student-teacher ratio is 16 to 1, ensuring personalized attention for each student. The school boasts impressive state test scores, with 95% of students demonstrating proficiency in math and 92% in reading. According to Niche rankings, Central Academy excels in various aspects, including diversity and survey responses from students and parents. The majority of respondents agree that students at this school are competitive, creative, and athletic. Teachers receive high praise for engaging lessons, genuine care for students, and effective classroom management. The school offers a range of clubs and organizations, with girls' and boys' athletic participation exceeding national averages. Students appreciate the variety of activities available, including funding for clubs and organizations, as well as high participation rates. Seniors and current students rave about their experience at Central Academy, praising its unique approach to education. They highlight the academies' ability to prepare students for college readiness, with a focus on selecting from various majors like engineering, information systems, and more. Overall, CATA has earned a reputation as an excellent school that fosters personal growth, academic excellence, and community spirit. Central Academy Of Technology And Arts is an excellent school with a relatively flat student population over the past five years, having stayed steady at around 846 students. The teacher population has grown by 6% during this time, with a current total of 52 teachers. This academy has received the prestigious Blue Ribbon School award in 2016, acknowledging its academic excellence. The school offers grades 9-12, with no virtual instruction available. Students who are part of the music production and recording arts (MPRA) program, like my brother, have the opportunity to dive deep into music while also learning about the audiovisual side. It is clear that this academy provides a well-rounded education. In terms of statistics, Central Academy Of Technology And Arts has seen a steady increase in student enrollment over the years. The school's teacher population has grown significantly, with a current ratio of 16:1 between students and teachers. The school colors are Navy Blue, Khaki, and Burgundy, and it is ranked as one of the top schools in North Carolina, taking the seventh spot out of 2617 schools at the state level. The school's performance on standardized tests is also impressive, with a high percentage of proficient scores in math, reading, and language arts. Overall, Central Academy Of Technology And Arts seems to be an excellent choice for students looking for a well-rounded education with opportunities in various fields, including music production and recording arts. Data may not be displayed on any public-facing website or service that replicates or resembles a school search or review portal without prior written permission. See our Terms of Service. Year Central Academy Of Technology And Arts North Carolina Union County School District 2023 Percentage of schools in North Carolina: 86% 92% 1990% 85% 93% 1999% 85% 93% 1995% 88% 93% 1996% 87% 93% 2019 95% 86% 93% 2017 98% 88% 93% 2016 99% 88% 93% 2015 99% 87% 93% 2014 99% 86% 93% 2013 99% 85% 91% 13% 8% 8% 2022 5 Participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) Eligible for Free Lunch Eligible for Reduced Lunch School Statewide Testing View Education Department Test Scores School District Name Union County School District Source: National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), NC Dept. of Education Profile last updated: 02/09/2025 2 is Central Academy Of Technology And Arts's ranking? Central Academy Of Technology And Arts is ranked #7 out of 2,617 schools, which ranks it among the top 1% of public schools in North Carolina. 95% of students have achieved math proficiency (compared to the 51% NC state average), while 90-94% of students have achieved reading proficiency (compared to the 50% NC state average). The graduation rate of Central Academy Of Technology And Arts is 95%, which is higher than the North Carolina state average of 86%. 846 students attend Central Academy Of Technology And Arts. 60% of Central Academy Of Technology And Arts students are White, 15% of students are Hispanic, 12% of students are Asian, 8% of students are Black, and 5% of students are Two or more races. The student:teacher ratio of Central Academy Of Technology And Arts is 16:1, which is higher than the North Carolina state average of 15:1. Central Academy Of Technology And Arts offers enrollment in grades 9-12 (No virtual instruction). Looking forward to welcoming everyone at Cady Studios on Crownpoint Executive Drive unless you select the school road shoot scheduled for Wednesday, September 17th. For families using their own photographer, a yearbook-only photo opportunity is planned for October with a deadline of November 3rd. You will receive your picture portfolio via mail and can choose to buy some or return the whole thing using the included postage-paid label. The school yearbook photo requirements include wearing formal attire in black or black and white with a formal background - either tux, drape, or casual outfits. If you have questions, contact Cady at (704) 859-0737 or reach out to Ms. Christensen via email. ===== Mrs. Smith is very happy to join Weddington High School! She lives in Wingate, NC with her husband Cory and two sons Bryson and Weston. Mrs. Smith is from Union County and graduated from Forest Hills High School. She works for UCPS for 8 years. Mrs. Smith got a degree in K-12 Health & Physical Education from Wingate University in May of 2013. Before that, she was a teacher at Forest Hills High School for five years. After teaching, she wanted to get her administrative license so she went back to school and earned a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Queens University of Charlotte in May of 2018. Before becoming an administrator, Mrs. Smith worked in testing coordination, led an instructional team, and held other admin roles. She also coached Women's Tennis and Softball during her time as a teacher. In the summer of 2021, she became an Assistant Principal at Weddington High School. Then, she got named 2025 UCPS Assistant Principal of the Year and moved to Central Academy of Technology & Arts in July 2025. Mrs. Smith is very excited to work with the students, staff, and parents of CATA!

- sma genetic testing
- https://cdn.prod.website-files.com/6861d8d40890b422e4b306b1/6866eb5ec9e8a5e37df30273_71352793962.pdf
- https://uploads-ssl.webflow.com/681ba5c05a3059eae87e7cd4/6865f50ee88c1a266267e2ff_91391046373.pdf
- the pizza edition games unblocked
- princeton international school of math and science
- how many questions are on the asvab exam
- yujavu
- notary public exam questions
- san francisco state university masters in social work