Last updated: 15 April 2025 The Masters prize money purse is as big as it's ever been – with a record $21 million up for grabs to those teeing up at Augusta National this week. Rory McIlroy reveals 10 words his caddie said to inspire Masters glory The total prize pot for the 89th Masters has risen by $1 million from the $20 million that was on offer in 2023 – a $9.5 million increase in the last four years. The winner's share of $4.2 million has also increased by $600,000 since Scottie Scheffler slipped into the Green Jacket 12 months ago.This is the full breakdown of the 2025 Masters prize money.POSITIONPLAYEREARNINGS1stRory McIlroy$4,200,0002ndJustin Rose$2,268,0003rdPatrick Reed$1,428,0004thScottie Scheffler$1,008,0007thSungjae Im8tyson DeChambeau$798,0007thLudvig Aberg$703,5007thXander SchauffeleZach JohnsonCorey ConnersJason Day$588,000T12thMax HomaHarris English$462,000T14thTom HogeTyrrell HattonJon RahmMatt McCartyCollin MorikawaJordan SpiethBubba Watson$336,000T21stDavis RileyDaniel BergerTommy FleetwoodByeong Hun AnHideki MatsuyamaViktor Hovland$210,000T27thMichael KimAaron Rai$158,550T29thJoaquin NiemannDenny McCarthySahith Theegala$142,800T32ndRasmus HøgaardMaverick McNealyBrian CampbellMax Greyserman$121,538T36thJustin ThomasBrian HarmanCharl SchwartzelPatrick Cantlay$101,063T40thMatt FitzpatrickNick Taylor$88,200T42ndDanny WillettAkshay BhatiaJT PostonShane Lowry$75,600T46thSam BurnsDavis ThompsonWyndham Clark$61,18049thMin Woo Lee$54,60050thJJ Spaun$52,920Other players who make the cut but finish below 50th place will also receive prizes ranging downward from $51,600, depending on their scores, while those who missed the cut will each take home $25,000 for their troubles. Amateur players are not eligible for prize money.When the Masters was founded in 1934, Bobby Jones and Clifford Roberts were keen to attract as strong a field as possible. So they put up a $5,000 purse with $1,500 of that going to the winner – around $36,000 in today's money.In contrast, the first prize at the US Open and PGA Championship in the same year was $1,000, while The Open champion took home just £100. (No, that is not missing a zero.)Somewhat strangely, the purse fluctuated through the 1950s and '60s, though the winner's share always stayed the same or increased.Incidentally, the first player to head back down Magnolia Lane with a seven-figure paycheck was Tiger Woods – who else? – after his 2001 victory saw him put a second Green Jacket in his closet and just north of $1 million in his bank account.
