

Support your team by supporting their families

www.getfamnest.com

When families feel supported at home, employees bring more focus and energy to work.

Famnest brings calendars, bills, routines, health info, and reminders into one place with an assistant that helps families stay ahead.

“Helping people to be more financially secure doesn’t just make them more financially secure, it supports them to be healthier, happier, more productive.”

– Jo Phillips, Director at Nest Insight

In an article published on October 31, 2025, written by Rasmus Stjernström, Jo Phillips noted the strong potential in how Famnest combines money and health data at the household level.
