

Enjoy x UArctic Congress 2026

Excursions available 23-30 May

Highlights of the Faroe Islands – 8-hour tour (09:00 departure from Tórshavn)

Photo by Jonas Rudolph / @jonasrudolph

This full-day tour takes you to some of the Faroe Islands' most iconic locations. We begin in Kirkjubøur, the country's most important historical site, home to the ruins of Magnus Cathedral (c. 1300), Saint Olav's Church (12th century), and the historic farmhouse Kirkjubøargarður, inhabited by the same family for 17 generations.

The tour continues to the picturesque village of Saksun, surrounded by dramatic cliffs and waterfalls, and onwards to Tjørnuvík, known for its Viking heritage, sandy beach, and views of the famous "Giant and Hag" sea stacks.

We then cross the island to the charming village of Gjógv, with time to explore its natural harbour and scenic surroundings. During summer (May–August), puffins may be spotted nesting above the gorge.

Return to Tórshavn in the afternoon via a scenic mountain route, with several photo stops along the way.

Price: DKK 1,650 per person (includes transfer, guide, entrance fees, and lunch).

High-Speed Boat Tour to Hestur & Klæmintsgjógv - 1.5 hours (Departures at 12:00, 14:40, and 16:30 from Gamlarætt)

Experience the dramatic western coastline of Hestur Island on this thrilling boat tour. The highlight is a visit to Klæmintsgjógv, recognised as the world's largest sea cave, surrounded by towering cliffs, striking rock formations, and seabird colonies.

This tour offers a unique opportunity to explore one of the most remote and spectacular coastal landscapes in the Faroe Islands from the sea.

Price: DKK 700 per person

Excursions available Saturday 23 May

Viking History, Sea Cliffs & Scenic Hike – 9-hour tour (09:00 departure from Tórshavn)

Your day begins with pickup at your hotel and a visit to the village of Kvívík, where you will explore ancient Viking settlements and learn about the Faroe Islands' early history.

The tour continues to Vestmanna for the renowned boat trip along the dramatic sea cliffs, featuring striking basalt formations, narrow sea caves, and rich birdlife. Lunch is served in Vestmanna with views over the fjord.

The day concludes with a scenic hike from Skeiðskarð to Norðadalur, offering panoramic views of valleys, cliffs, and the surrounding ocean – an ideal way to experience the Faroes' rugged landscape on foot.

Price: DKK 2,750 per person (includes transfer, guide, boat tour, and lunch).

Photo by Brian Rene Egebjerg / www.facebook.com/fotografegbjerg

Excursions available Sunday 24 May & Tuesday 26 May

Vágar & Trælanípan (Slave Cliff) Hike – 7-hour tour (09:00 departure from Tórshavn)

Photo by Marina Vogel / @marinas.journey

This tour takes you to the island of Vágar. The first stop is the picturesque village of Bøur, offering stunning views of the islet Tindhólmur and the iconic sea stacks Drangarnir.

We then continue to Gásadalur, home to the breathtaking Múlafossur waterfall – one of the most photographed sights in the Faroe Islands. Until 2006, the village was accessible only by hiking over the mountains, adding to its remote charm.

The tour concludes with a hike to Trælanípan (Slave Cliff), starting near the famous “floating lake” Sørvágsvatn. From the cliffs, you will enjoy spectacular views of Bøsdalafossur waterfall and the Atlantic Ocean below. The hike takes approximately 3 hours in total.

Price: DKK 1,850 per person (includes transfer, guide, hiking fee, and packed lunch).

Excursions available Sunday 24 May, Tuesday 26 May & Thursday 28 May

Footsteps of the Vikings – 4-hour hike (16:00 departure from Tórshavn)

This scenic mountain hike on Streymoy follows old cairn-marked paths from Skeiðsskarð to the peaceful valley of Norðradalur, offering panoramic views of Vágar, Koltur, and Hestur along the way. The route passes dramatic cliffs, open highland plateaus, and quiet valleys – a true experience of Faroese wilderness.

Walking these historic paths, used for centuries by local communities, you will encounter landscapes shaped by both nature and history. Local legends and stories from the Viking Age (9th–11th centuries) add cultural depth to this striking setting.

Combining sweeping views, rugged terrain, and historical atmosphere, this hike offers a memorable introduction to the natural and cultural heritage of the Faroe Islands.

Price: DKK 1,650 per person (includes transfer, guide, and refreshments).

Guided bike tours

Photo by Kirstin Vang / @kirstinvang

Available Sunday 24 May

Mountain Biking with Local Guide – 2-hour tour (14:00 departure from Tórshavn)

This guided mountain biking tour takes you from the city centre of Tórshavn to a scenic valley just outside town. The route passes the beach and continues along gravel paths and hilly terrain, including sections where you cycle alongside and across a small stream.

From the valley, the tour follows an old horse path with panoramic views over Tórshavn before returning via narrow trails through the western part of the city.

The tour starts at Rent a Bike & Outdoor, Sverrisgøta 20, Tórshavn.

Price: DKK 775 per person

Available Tuesday 26 May

Biking to Norðadalsskarð Viewpoint with Local Guide – 3-hour tour (10:15 departure from Tórshavn)

Challenge yourself with a scenic climb to the stunning viewpoint at Norðadalsskarð (225 m above sea level). The tour begins along the coastal road, passing cultural landmarks before gradually ascending the mountain road with sweeping views of the northern islands.

From the mountain pass, you will enjoy spectacular views of the island of Koltur and the village of Norðadal. The return ride takes you downhill towards Tórshavn, offering panoramic views over the southern part of the island.

The tour starts at Rent a Bike & Outdoor, Sverrisgøta 20, Tórshavn.

Price: DKK 775 per person

Available Wednesday 27 May

Tórshavn Sightseeing by E-Bike with Local Guide – 2-hour tour (10:15 departure from Tórshavn)

Explore the highlights of Tórshavn by e-bike, accompanied by a local guide. This guided tour takes you to key historical and cultural landmarks as well as scenic natural spots around one of the world's smallest capitals.

Travelling by e-bike allows you to cover more ground with ease, while enjoying the city's unique atmosphere without the concerns of traffic or parking.

The tour starts at Rent a Bike & Outdoor, Sverrisgøta 20, Tórshavn.

Price: DKK 675 per person

Available Thursday 28 May

Bike Tour to Historic Kirkjubøur with Local Guide – 3-hour tour (10:15 departure from Tórshavn)

Cycle from Tórshavn to the historic village of Kirkjubøur, home to some of the Faroe Islands' most significant cultural landmarks. This sustainable and active tour combines scenic riding with rich history.

The route passes through the eastern district of Tórshavn and across a mountain pass (190 m above sea level), offering panoramic views of the western and southern islands. In Kirkjubøur, you will visit Saint Olav's Church, the ruins of the medieval Magnus Cathedral, and Kirkjubøargarður – one of the oldest continuously inhabited wooden houses in Europe.

The return ride takes you through the hillside village of Velbastaður before descending back to central Tórshavn.

The tour starts at Rent a Bike & Outdoor, Sverrisgøta 20, Tórshavn.

Price: DKK 775 per person