This Week's MISSION FOCUS

Jim Snellink
Serving in Michigan

Jim Snellink is in the Development Department of Youth for Christ Intl., working with donor relations. He communicates with financial and prayer partners of their missionaries in 120+ countries. Pray for his responsibilities as he is communicating with the faithful individuals who prayerfully and financially supporting staff.

Thousands of kids from their 100+ YFC nations will be attending camp, one of the main events for reaching students with the life changing message of Jesus. Please be in diligent prayer for these camps around the world: 1) For staff and volunteers as they make preparations; 2) Finances for the event itself as well as for individual students financial needs; 3) For parents who are hesitant to let their children attend; 4) For music groups and speakers/teachers as they prepare to share the gospel with lost kids from their given nation....using creativity based on their culture; 5) For new relationships formed between kids and staff; 6) For follow-up with those that make the decision to make Jesus the Lord of their life, starting the process of discipling these new babes in Christ and getting them involved in a local church.

Prayer of praise for his niece Kelly with her journey of breast cancer. Praise that through several treatments, she is CANCER FREE! Prayer for her reconstruction surgery scheduled for the end of May; she has been advised that this is going to be the most difficult part of this whole journey. Kelly continues to praise Jesus for strength and endurance throughout this whole process. Pray also for her husband, Tony and her three children as they walk this journey with her.
