Equipping Children for Life

New Song Mission

Serving in Nashville, Indiana

New Song provides a nurturing, educational campus community where kids can grow and thrive. Located in the scenic hills of Brown County, their purpose is to equip vulnerable children for life so they will be able to fulfill all of the wonderful plans God has for their future.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for New Song's teachers and houseparents.
- Pray for God's discernment on whether to open a permanent school location in inner-city Indianapolis.
- Pray for several new board members who have recently joined their ministry's board team.

OPEN DOORS

Come and Take
Revelation 22:17
September 20, 2026

Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life. — Revelation 22:17

I. THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE

- The Spirit of Christ (the Holy Spirit) and his church bring an invitation... "Come!" (Matt. 11:28-30; 1 Tim. 3:15, 4:9-10).
- When the church sends out missionaries, it does so in cooperation with the Spirit of God (Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 1:8).

II. THE ONE WHO HEARS

- When the message is heard, the receiver says, "Come." Salvation comes through hearing and believing. Those who do not hear, cannot believe. Those who hear and do not say "come," cannot be saved (John 3:18-21; Rom. 10:11-15, 17).
- When we have heard and received, we join with the Spirit and the church in praying for the second advent of Christ and his consummation (v. 17; Rev. 22:20).

III. A UNIVERSAL CALL

- Those who are thirsty and desire the living waters that Christ offers are also encouraged to "come." (Isa. 55:1; John 4:13-14; Rom. 8:18-25).
- The call to salvation is a universal call. Our call is to proclaim it. Salvation itself belongs to the Lord (Jonah 2:9, Acts 10:34-35; Titus 2:11).

KNOW:

The Spirit of Christ and his church cry out for the coming of the Lord. We long for a consummation, and while we long, we hold out an invitation to all who are thirsty and to all who desire to come and take of the water of life without price.

DO:

Go and send with a message of the freedom of salvation and the longing for Christ's return!
