Parables OF THE KINGDOM

LUKE 16:19-30

JYM GREGORY

NOV. 15, 2026

This Week's MISSION FOCUS

Kyongmin Choi & Eunjin Kim
Serving in the country of Georgia

Kyongmin Choi and Eunjin Kim serve with Korea Evangelical Holiness Church. In Georgia, they support the local church and teach children worship songs and the Bible. They are translating kids ministry materials into the Georgian language with the local Christian channel. They are also preparing to establish a Korean/English library for an education ministry.

Prayer Requests

- Children's Bible Materials - May God guide the translation and development of children's teaching materials, make the process smooth, and bless them with meaningful connections so that this work can continue consistently.
- Establishing a Worship Community - May God lead them to the souls He has prepared, so that they may meet them and establish a worshiping community.
- Financial Provision for the Mission Center - May God provide the necessary funds of $250,000 (15% raised) to establish a library that will serve as a mission center.
- The Salvation of Georgian Friends - May their Georgian friends, including Aya, Sarah, Matthew, Ani, Mariam, and Lana, come to know God personally and become true followers of Jesus Christ.
- Please pray for them to build strong, healthy relationships with people in both Korea and Georgia. Pray that God would give them wisdom and grace to navigate any challenges smoothly and connect deeply with the locals.

PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM

The Warning of the Kingdom
Luke 16:19-31
November 15, 2026

I. RICH MAN, POOR MAN

- Jesus paints a picture of contrasts. The rich man is both wealthy and powerful; the poor man was abundantly cursed. He was starving, in pain, and humiliated (Vss. 10-20).
- The poor man dies and is carried by angels to paradise. The rich man dies and is sent to Hades (Vss. 22-23).

II. ETERNAL DWELLINGS

- The rich man finds himself in Hades, the abode of the dead. There he is in torment (Vss. 22-24; Matt. 5:22; Mark 9:43; Luke 13:28).
- The poor man finds himself in Paradise (Abraham's side). There is no description given, but he is now "comforted here" (Vs. 25).
- In the eternal state described here, there is a "great chasm" between the two locations. In other words, there is no going and coming (Daniel 12:1-4).

III. RESURRECTION—THE GREAT CONVINCER?

- The rich man would like Lazarus to continue to be his servant, but his serving days are over.
- The rich man had Moses and the prophets in life. He was unconvinced. Not even a resurrection would have changed his nature, nor would it change his brothers (John 11:45-53).
- We have the Scriptures and the message of the gospel. Miracles tend to encourage the faithful, they rarely convince the lost (Matt. 9:12-14; John 11:45-53).

KNOW: There are only two paths we can go by in this life: One leads to life, the other to death. There are no second chances. This bad news needs to be embraced in order for the good news to bear fruit in our lives.

DO: Respond to the truth you have received.
