NON ALCOHOLIC COCKTAILS

MIYA COLADA 50

Miya is a reference to Miyazaki prefecture famous for its premium sorts of Mango. The cocktail is a twist on the classic Piña Colada, showcasing Japan from a tropical perspective. This non-alcoholic cocktail combines mango, representing a Japanese element, with coconut and non-alcoholic rum, creating a harmonious fusion of tropical flavours with a Japanese touch.

CHABANA 50

Chabana refers to the simple, elegant flower arrangements used in traditional Japanese tea ceremonies (chanoyu). Combining "cha" (tea) and "bana" (flowers), chabana features seasonal blooms arranged informally to complement the tea ceremony's atmosphere. Unlike the more structured ikebana, chabana emphasizes natural beauty and understated grace, enhancing the experience of mindfulness and simplicity during the ceremony.

UIRGIN GEISHA 50

The Virgin Geisha captures the essence of Japan through the prism of nature, gracefully intertwining tradition and modernity. "Virgin" reflects its non-alcoholic purity, while "Geisha" evokes a timeless elegance, symbolizing the harmonious fusion of East and West. This cocktail is a delicate balance of cultural sophistication, offering a refined interpretation of classic mixology, where tradition meets innovation in perfect harmony.
