Coin Launch

This is not financial advice. It's not even strategic advice. It's just a leveraged bet on satire.

- Ticker: $PE
- Launchpad: Moonshot.com
- Supply: 1,000,000,000
- Circulating: All of it. No vesting, no mercy.
- Utility: None. Mocking suits and memeing takeovers
- Roadmap: ???
- Exit: On or about next year

Problem Statement

The world is full of overpaid PE bros buying companies, gutting them, and calling it "value creation."

- $1B+ funds for vending machine roll-ups
- Zero innovation, just EBITDA arbitrage
- Nothing on-chain, nothing fun

Market Opportunity

The addressable market for financial satire is bigger than any buyout fund can model.

TAM: Every finance bro who hates themselves

Value Add?

Traditional private equity buys companies and strips them for parts. We do the same—but with memes, chaos, and absolutely no fiduciary responsibility. Here's how $PE might *definitely not* work:

- Vote to "acquire" fake companies (thinking about BlockbusterDAO, SearsFi)
- Meme it into existence
- Profit???
- Blame LPs

Fund?

That's private. We don't disclose our portfolio details.
