Terms of Use

1. Minimum Commitment Period
 - All memberships require a minimum term. Early cancellations before the term is complete will not be eligible for refunds, and the remaining balance may still be charged unless otherwise agreed.
 - This ensures quality control, fair access to our exclusive provider network, and maintains platform integrity.
2. Automatic Billing
 - Subscriptions are billed monthly via Stripe. Billing begins on the date of registration.
 - After the initial commitment period, plans will auto-renew monthly until cancelled.
3. Upgrading/Downgrading
 - Upgrades can occur at any time. Downgrades only take effect after the current commitment period ends.
4. Cancellation
 - Members may request cancellation via their dashboard at any time, but billing will continue until the commitment period ends.
5. Refunds
 - Due to the exclusivity and private nature of our provider network, we do not offer partial or full refunds after signup.
6. Platform Access
 - Access to providers, features, and content is determined by your active tier.
 - Access may be suspended for failure to pay or breach of terms.
7. Confidentiality
 - All member and provider relationships are private. Members agree to use the platform respectfully and only for personal, professional use.
