With its borderless Minor Arcana and special card designs, this deck offers a fresh perspective on classic tarot symbolism. One of the standout features of the Prisma Visions Tarot is its ability to help you develop new ideas and insights through contemplation and pondering. The cards may not be easy to decipher at first, but they invite you to explore their meanings and tap into your intuition. Overall, the Prisma Visions Tarot is a timeless deck that offers a captivating experience for anyone interested in tarot readings and oracle cards. Prisma Visions Tarot and Light Visions Tarot offer two distinct experiences for readers seeking deeper connections with the cards. ===== The Prisma Visions Tarot boasts vibrant, richly colored cards that pulsate with energy, whereas its counterpart, Light Visions Tarot, presents a more subdued, monochromatic aesthetic. Notably, the minors in the Prisma Visions Tarot lack borders, forming one long, continuous picture when arranged in order from Ace to King. ===== Although both decks cater to experienced readers seeking a challenge, Prisma Visions Tarot's Majors are bordered, potentially making them appear smaller than their actual size. Furthermore, the deck's thick card stock and glossy finish render it cumbersome to shuffle, particularly for those with weaker hands. Looking for a tarot deck that sparks your imagination and helps you tap into the symbolism of each card? Prisma Visions Tarot, created by James R. Eads James, is an innovative choice that will resonate with both novice and seasoned readers. James R. Eads James, a Los Angeles-based surrealist artist, weaves vivid tales through his traditional printmaking and digital media, inviting you to step into a world of bewitching fiction. Prisma Visions Tarot Review by Ayram and Rachel The Prisma Visions Tarot deck is a visually stunning collection that weaves together artistic magic, love, seriousness, playfulness, and transcendental enlightenment. As Ayram notes, this beautifully designed deck has everything you need to tap into its depths. The Prisma Visions Tarot deck is an enchanting collection of cards that bring to mind the Impressionistic style of Van Gogh's Starry Night. Each suit represents a season, with Winter associated with Swords, Spring with Wands, Summer with Pentacles, and Fall with Cups. The artwork is breathtaking, featuring beautiful borders around the major arcana and intricate details throughout. The cards themselves are slightly thicker than average tarot cards, similar in weight to those found in the Wild Unknown deck, and have a lovely reflective sheen due to their silver edges. Shuffling these cards can be a bit challenging due to their thickness and stiffness, but this is easily overcome with practice. A wash is an effective way to combine them without causing any damage. The cards are reversible, featuring a central eye illustration on a lighter blue swirl design set against a darker blue background. The Prisma Visions Tarot deck comes with a 100-page companion guidebook that provides detailed explanations for each card. While some users may find the language used in this book to be overly complex, it is a valuable resource for those seeking to deepen their understanding of tarot and its symbolism. One unique feature of this deck is the inclusion of an extra Grote Arcana kaart known as the Aardbeienkaart (Strawberry Card), which is essentially a duplicate of one of the court cards. This card can be used or ignored at the discretion of the reader, depending on their personal preference and interpretation. In terms of readability, the text describing each card in the Prisma Visions Tarot deck's companion book has been translated by some users to make it more accessible, as the original language may be difficult for non-native speakers to understand. Dit is een prachtig deck; het is een teken van natuurlijke goedheid. Het is het antwoord op de keizerin, gezond en warm en klaar om een veilige haven te bieden. Je bent gegrond in de realiteit en straalt een subtiele kracht uit die kan worden gekanaliseerd voor elk streven. Wees erop voorbereid dat alles wat je aanraakt onder je hand zal bloeien.
