Songkran & Water Fights in

THAILAND

THAILAND

WHAT TO EXPECT

This is Thailand at its wildest. Songkran is not just New Year. It's a country-wide water fight where strangers soak you, DJs play from trucks, beer flows before noon, and nobody stays dry. We've built this trip around the heart of the festival, pairing Songkran madness with island hopping, snorkelling, bar crawls, and just enough downtime to recover.

From bar hopping in Phuket to Soi Mango nights in Samui, from getting drenched during Songkran day parties to cooling off in Phi Phi, this trip is loud, wet, sweaty, and unforgettable. Come ready to get soaked. Physically and emotionally.
