Exemplary Practice 4.0: Staffing and Professional Development

•An exemplary nontraditional or alternative school is staffed with effective, innovative, and qualified individuals trained in current research-based teaching methods that facilitate active learning, promote creativity, and encourage self-evaluation.

Indicators of Quality Programming:

- 4.1 Enthusiastic, energetic, and innovative teachers who demonstrate multiple teaching styles are employed at the school.
- 4.2 The staff understands and practices the concept of facilitative learning.
- 4.3 The diversity of the staff mirrors the diversity of the student body and the experience of the alternative education faculty mirrors the faculty experience of the school district.
- 4.4 The teacher to student ratio of the nontraditional or alternative school promotes individualized instruction. The recommended student to teacher ratio is 12 to 1.
- 4.5 Staff members create written professional development plans that facilitate personal and professional growth, identify the professional development needs of the individual, establish short-and long-term SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Results Focused, Time Bound) goals, and align professional development training to address the individual's overall plan.
- 4.6 Staff members create a professional learning community (PLC), that encourages the sharing of successes and growth areas to cultivate an attitude of continuous improvement and lifelong learning.
- 4.7 The focus of professional development is on student achievement, effective and affective skills development, social skills, and college and career readiness.
- 4.8 A variety of professional development approaches, including technology, to accomplish the goals of improving instruction and increasing student achievement are used at the school.
- 4.9 Professional development opportunities include information related to effective collaboration with community agencies and services to support the student in the home and workplace.
- 4.10 Increasing staff capacity through training to ensure the use of research-based strategies that align with the needs of the program population is used strategically at the school.
- 4.11 Sufficient fiscal and capital resources are allotted to allow all staff to participate in workshops, conferences, and seminars.
- 4.12 Administration ensures ongoing professional development is geared towards the specific needs of teachers and support personnel as it relates to their role in the nontraditional or alternative school.
